"This was classical music played like the best rock'n'roll. It was passionate, earnest, loud and more complex than the gatekeepers of high culture would like to think. Brava."
Ben Sisario, NY Press

One of America's most acclaimed and versatile contemporary music pianists, Ms. Supové is known for continually redefining what it means to be a pianist/keyboardist/performance artist in today's world. After winning top prizes in the Gaudeamus International Competition for Interpretation of Contemporary Music, she began her career as a guest artist at the prestigious Darmstadt Festival in Germany. Since then, Ms. Supové has annually presented a series of solo concerts entitled The Exploding Piano, performing and premiering works by established and emerging composers – a veritable Who's Who of contemporary music for piano.
